Professional Designations:

Certified Kingdom Advisor® (CKA®) Certified Kingdom Advisor® is a professional designation granted by Kingdom Advisors, Inc., a not-for-profit organization established in 2003, to individuals who have satisfied the following requirements. Candidates must sign a Statement of Faith, obtain a letter of reference from a pastor or member of pastoral staff, pass a regulatory review, complete a signed statement of personal stewardship, and submit two client references. Candidates must either hold one of the following industry approved designations: CFP®, ChFC®, CPA, CPA/PFS, EA, CFA, CIMA®, AAMS, CLU®, JD or hold 10 years of experience in the professional discipline in which they applied for the CKA® designation. Disciplines include insurance, investments, accounting, law, and financial planning. The CKA® must complete the 60-hour CKA® Educational Program, a 3-credit hour equivalent certificate program offered by Indiana Wesleyan University, take a national proctored exam, and complete 10 hours of continuing education each year. Kingdom Advisors (KA) requires all Certified Kingdom Advisor® designees to remain in substantial compliance with a set of ethical principles, rules, and standards in order to use or to continue to use the Certified Kingdom Advisor® designation. In order to oversee such compliance, KA has established procedures for reporting ethical violation, as well as a set of public disciplinary procedures to oversee the investigation of potential violations of such principles.

ITEM 3: Disciplinary Information

Thomas Melvin NeeSmith, Jr. has had no legal or disciplinary event against him.

ITEM 4: Other Business Activities

Thomas Melvin NeeSmith, Jr. holds an insurance license and receives commission from the sale of life (non-variable) insurance products. The receipt of commissions gives Mr. NeeSmith an incentive to recommend insurance products based upon his compensation rather than the client's needs. He discloses this conflict of interest to the client and emphasize the client's ability to purchase insurance products elsewhere, purchase products other than those recommended, or not purchase insurance at all. Less than 25% of his time is spent on these activities.

Thomas Melvin NeeSmith, Jr. is also an active Board member of both the River Edge Behavioral Health Foundation and the NextStep Ministry as well as the Teaching Director, Macon Men's Community Bible Study (CBS).

ITEM 5: Additional Compensation

Thomas Melvin NeeSmith, Jr. does not receive an economic benefit, for providing advisory services to anyone other than clients of Christy Capital. He also does not receive any bonus based upon the number or amount of sales, client referrals or new accounts.
